General Requirements

Before you begin:

- Applicants must provide accurate information to Screen Australia at all times. A person or company that makes a false or misleading statement to Screen Australia in an application may face criminal or civil liability including liability for an offence under the Criminal Code Act 1995. In addition, if funding awarded by Screen Australia was obtained by fraud or serious misrepresentation, Screen Australia can revoke its funding.
- It is important that you read our Terms of Trade, the Online Development Guidelines and the Online Development FAQs to ensure your project is eligible for Screen Australia Funding and to help you deliver the strongest application possible.
- For help completing this application, refer to the Help Guide for Applicants or Applicant Frequently Asked Questions \(FAQs\)
- For queries about the guidelines, deadlines, or questions in the form, please contact us on 1800 507 901 during business hours or email online@screenaustralia.gov.au and quote your application number

The Online Development Fund is aimed at emerging Australian screen creatives, allowing them to access funding to develop the creative materials of their scripted or documentary projects with a primary release via an online platform.

In most cases this fund applies to projects releasing on social media platforms such as YouTube, Facebook and TikTok, as well as Virtual Reality (and other Extended Reality) projects. Screen Australia recognises this part of the industry is fast-changing, so other release platforms may be eligible.

The Online Development Fund should be considered as a potential step prior to applying for Online Production Funding. Applications may be made for up to $25,000 to cover the development of creative materials. Funding for a proof of concept will be considered in addition to the creative materials funding, for any amount up to $30,000.

For larger budget projects aimed at a release on broadcasters or streaming platforms, applicants are advised to apply to the Screen Story Development Fund (Generate or Premium)

Please confirm you meet eligibility requirements.

Protagonist

A protagonist is a character who features one or more of the following:

- Holds the 'point of view', or provides the dominant point of view that is experienced by the audience
- Drives the action of the story
- Has an arc of change:
 - The emotional and story stakes are tied to the protagonist's arc
 - A protagonist may not experience an arc of change, but may 'blossom' into their own fully realised selves, which in turn promotes changes in characters around them
 - A protagonist may 'fail' to change, and still be a protagonist (e.g. a protagonist who is confronted with a character 'flaw', does not change, and suffers the consequences).

Ensemble dramas/ dramas with multiple protagonists

Several characters may meet the classification of a protagonist. These characters' stories may intertwine throughout the plot (for example Heartbreak High and The Katering Show), or they may only interact occasionally, if at all (Redfern Now series).

Series drama may be structured to feature a different protagonist in each episode (for example, The Slap).

Allocating gender

The character's own gender identification is used when possible – for example, a character who identifies as female is classed as female.

Using the definition provided, please state the gender and name of the protagonist/s in your project.

Protagonist name	Protagonist gender	If you have selected 'Different term', please specify

Gender equity, diversity and inclusivity are priorities for Screen Australia. We therefore expect that the diversity of the story world and characters are reflected in the creative team and/or that integrated and meaningful collaboration occurs from early stages of development. Also, consider whether your team has the right to tell the story and whether your telling of it will be authentic.

How do elements of the project (story and/or team) reflect gender equity and the diversity of people and experiences from around Australia? *

Word count:

Must be between 200 and 250 words.

Video Pitch

Please note the following important requirements for video links. Video must:

- be download-enabled for Screen Australia record keeping purposes
- be less than 200MB
- be in MP4 or WMV format, 264, resolution 720p.
- If you need assistance in reducing filesize, click here for instructions on compressing your video file.

Please provide a simple pitch to camera, maximum three minutes:

- Please tell us about the long-form story.
- Why are you and/or your team driven to make this project now?
- What makes your story distinctive and stand out from all the others for an audience?
- Tell us a bit about the key creatives and where you are all at in your careers.
- If you are applying for a Proof of Concept (POC) please also tell us about the idea, how it connects with the long-form project and how it will raise awareness for the project and team, attract finance and/or build an audience for the long-form project.

The pitch to camera can take any form – people, pictures, text on screen, music, sound, etc. It does not need to be a highly produced video to ‘sell’ to assessors but an opportunity to talk through your submission. You must upload a download-enabled link (maximum 200MB) but you may also include a link for the assessors to view at a higher resolution if necessary.

Key Creatives

With the exception of official Co-Productions, the project must be written and directed by Australian citizens or residents.

Please provide the information requested for each Key Creative including the Applicant. These are the key members of the creative team who are confirmed and integral to the funding requested at this stage. Click on 'Add More' to enter multiple Key Creatives.

For each Key Creative you must indicate their Career Stage. This refers to what stage of their career the Key Creative has reached to this point:

- Grassroots: The Key Creative has no practical industry experience. They may have worked on some small, short-form content projects.
- Emerging: The Key creative has some experience in above the line roles on commissioned or critically recognised short-form productions. They may have a credit on a lower-budget long-form production.
- Mid-Career: The Key Creative has a strong track record across multiple longer form productions, which have achieved critical success and significant audience reach.
- Established: The Key Creative is highly accomplished, with significant experience on numerous higher-budget productions, which have achieved commercial and critical success.

The Indigenous language group provides a list of language names and the AIATSIS code from the Austlang Database. You can visit the Austlang Database to see more information about the language/s you are selecting.

First Nations Story Content

* indicates a required field

Screen Australia supports the telling of First Nations stories by First Nations creatives and storytellers.

Where this is not the case we expect meaningful collaboration with the First Nations communities whose stories they are.

Whenever there is First Nations content and/or First Nations community participation in the project or when there are First Nations members of the team who do not have the authority to speak for the people or place being represented in the story you will need to follow the checklists from Pathways & Protocols: a film maker's guide to working with Indigenous people, culture and concepts.

This includes a statement on how you are approaching the First Nations content, (even if you believe the content is not specific to a community or individual), evidence of your collaboration to date and where relevant, signed letters of consent confirming community and/or individual's willingness to participate.

All projects involving First Nations content or participation will be assessed by First Nations Assessors.

Does this project contain First Nations content and/or the participation of or collaboration with First Nations people? *

☐ Yes ☐ No

For example: Does the project involve a First Nations story or a First Nations character? Or focus on a First Nations person or community? Or use First Nations communities or land as locations? Or draw on or refer to First Nations culture and heritage in any form? Even if you think the First Nations elements are incidental they should be outlined here.

Please select the Indigenous languages or language groups that your story content relates to: *

If relevant select more than one.

Outline the level of First Nations content (themes, characters, actors, locations) that you believe will be a part of the completed screen project. *

Word count:

Must be no more than 250 words.

Why have you chosen to include First Nations themes, characters, talent and/or locations in this screen project? *

Word count:

Must be no more than 250 words.

How will you ensure the First Nations themes, characters, talent and locations are represented respectfully and authentically (from development, to pre-production, shoot, post-production, delivery and marketing)? *

Word count:

Must be no more than 250 words.

Key Creatives and Employment

Are any of the Key Creatives First Nations Australians? If the screen project has major First Nations components, will you ensure there is a First Nations Key Creative on your team? If not why? *

Word count:

Must be no more than 250 words.

How many First Nations people do you intend on employing in the development and/or production of this screen project? *

Word count:

Must be no more than 250 words.

Collaboration

How have you collaborated with the First Nations community on your screen project? Who from the First Nations community have you collaborated with and can you provide a letter of agreement from them? What is your collaborative process with the First Nations community with regards to this project going forward? *

Word count:

Must be no more than 250 words.

Rights

If your project has Indigenous Cultural and Intellectual Property components in the storyline, how are you implementing legal frameworks to protect these rights? *

Word count:

Must be no more than 250 words.

Screen Australia's Pathways & Protocols will provide more information about Indigenous Cultural and Intellectual Property (ICIP)

If this project is based on a real person or on a true story from a First Nations community do you hold the necessary rights to the story, have you spoken to the relevant people about their representation on the screen and have they read the treatment/script/story materials that you have submitted? *

Word count:

Must be no more than 250 words.

Development Budget and Funding Sources

Please provide a budget summary for the Development stage. Do not include GST

The Development budget can include funding for any of the scripted creative materials necessary for a project, including but not limited to; writing a treatment, draft scripts, bible, research, writers' rooms and key creative fees, as well as a filmed Proof of Concept or carer's costs. Please be as specific as possible when referring to line item costs.

Copyright and Clearances

* indicates a required field

The applicant must have the appropriate rights to tell the story through legal agreements (chain of title) whether the story is based on an original idea or based on a book, format, article or a real person (partly or wholly), etc.

For Story Development, you may have in-principle agreements in place i.e. email confirmation in order to acquire funding for the initial option. The legal costs can be included in your development budget.

For projects asking for $100,000 or over in combined Screen Australia funding, a solicitor's opinion letter validating your agreements will be required if the project is successful.

Do you have all of the appropriate agreements in place to tell your story (i.e. writers' agreements, directors' agreements, script editors' agreements, option agreements, etc)? *
