First Nations Story Content

* indicates a required field

Documentary Development

Form Preview

Screen Australia supports the telling of First Nations stories by First Nations creatives and storytellers.

Where this is not the case we expect meaningful collaboration and consultation with the First Nations communities whose stories they are.

Whenever there is First Nations content and/or First Nations community participation in the project or when there are First Nations members of the team who do not have the authority to speak for the people or place being represented in the story you will need to follow the checklists from Pathways & Protocols: a film maker's guide to working with Indigenous people, culture and concepts which includes a statement on how you are approaching the First Nations content, (even if you believe the content is not specific to a community or individual), evidence of your consultation to date and where relevant, signed letters of consent confirming community and/or individual's willingness to participate.

All projects involving First Nations content or participation will be assessed by First Nations Assessors.

It's important to us projects with First Nations story content adhere to the Pathways & Protocols Guide, even if First Nations content is only a section of your project.

Is First Nations content, and/or participation of or collaboration with First Nations people the key focus of your project? ***

Yes  No

Is First Nations content, and/or participation of or collaboration with First Nations people a section of your project? ***
