Protagonist

A protagonist:

- Holds the 'point of view', or provides the dominant point of view that is experienced by the audience
- Drives the action of the story
- Has an arc of change:
  - The emotional and story stakes are tied to the protagonist's arc

First Nations Production

Form Preview

- A protagonist may not experience an arc of change, but may 'blossom' into their own fully realised selves, which in turn promotes changes in characters around them
- A protagonist may 'fail' to change, and still be a protagonist (e.g. a protagonist who is confronted with a character 'flaw', does not change, and suffers the consequences).

A character does not have to feature all of the above factors to be a protagonist (or the only protagonist).

Ensemble dramas/ dramas with multiple protagonists

Several characters may meet the classification of a protagonist. These characters' stories may intertwine throughout the plot (for example Nowhere Boys and The Katering Show), or they may only interact occasionally, if at all (Redfern Now series).

Series drama may be structured to feature a different protagonist in each episode (for example, The Slap).

Allocating gender

The character's own gender identification is used when possible - for example, a character who identifies as female is classed as female.

Using the definition provided, please state the gender and name of the protagonist/s in your project.

Producer Offset & Co-Production Status

* indicates a required field

Producer Offset: You do not need to have lodged an application for your Producer Offset Provisional Certificate at the time of applying to the funding round unless specifically requested by your Investment Manager. In most cases producers will be able to wait to see whether or not their project has been successful for funding before applying for a certificate, saving time and application fees. However, if you are approved for funding you will need to lodge your application and receive your certification prior to contract execution. Co-Productions: You must be able to provide (where relevant) Provisional Co-production approval (no more than two years old) before the decision meeting at which your Production Investment application will be considered. To allow Screen Australia's Producer Offset and Co-Production Unit sufficient processing time, this means you must have lodged the relevant form/s with them before submitting your Production Investment application. For further information refer to Producer Offset funding and support

First Nations Story Content

* indicates a required field

Screen Australia supports the telling of First Nations stories by First Nations creatives and storytellers.

Where this is not the case we expect meaningful collaboration and consultation with the First Nations communities whose stories they are.

Whenever there is First Nations content and/or First Nations community participation in the project or when there are First Nations members of the team who do not have the authority to speak for the people or place being represented in the story you will need to follow the checklists from Pathways & Protocols: a film maker's guide to working with Indigenous people, culture and concepts which includes a statement on how you are approaching the First Nations content, (even if you believe the content is not specific to a community or individual), evidence of your consultation to date and where relevant, signed letters of consent confirming community and/or individual's willingness to participate.

All projects involving First Nations content or participation will be assessed by First Nations Assessors.

Does this project contain First Nations content, and/or the participation of or collaboration with First Nations people? ***

For example: Does the project involve a First Nations story or a First Nations character? Or focus on a First Nations person or community? Or use First Nations communities or land as locations? Or draw on or refer to First Nations culture and heritage in any form? Even if you think the First Nations elements are incidental they should be outlined here.

Please select the Indigenous languages or language groups that your story content relates to: ***

If relevant select more than one.
