

FIRST NATIONS CREATORS PROGRAM: GUIDELINES

RELEASED 17 JULY 2023

Screen Australia reserves the right to change its guidelines from time to time. Please ensure you check the website for the latest version. These guidelines should be read in conjunction with Screen Australia's Terms of Trade.

Overview

Instagram Australia (Meta) are partnering with Screen Australia's First Nations Department for a third time on the First Nations Creators Program, with an exciting, immersive production and education program to be held at Sydney's Meta Headquarters.

The First Nations Creators Program aims to foster Indigenous talent, amplify their voices online and help create long term career prospects for First Nations creators in social media and digital content creation.

Up to 15 emerging Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander digital creators will be selected to take part in an intensive in-house Program, which provides training, mentoring, career connections and content funding. Each creator will then be challenged to create their own series of Reels for Instagram, with content creation and delivery to happen within 6 weeks after the completion of the Program.

This program will be administered and supported by Screen Australia's First Nations Department.

Who can apply?

To be eligible for Instagram Australia and Screen Australia funding under this program, applicants must:

- identify as Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander
- be over 18 years old
- be an Australian citizen or permanent resident. Applicant companies must be incorporated and carrying on business in Australia.
- have an Instagram account and experience in social media or digital content creation
- be able to attend in person for an intensive two-day program in October 2023 (dates TBA).
- Meet the general eligibility requirements set out in Screen Australia's Terms of Trade.
- Meet Meta's standard partner safety and security checks.

What support is available?

Successful applicants will enter the Program, consisting of the following:

- Formal training/ and practical workshops run by Meta, Screen Australia, and a series of external experts
- Inspiration sessions run by industry thought leaders and creators
- Group Feedback/Discussions as required, and collaboration with like-minded creators
- Creator Mentors participants partner with a creator working in the area of interest
- Content funding pitch and production
- Access to Meta's in-house studio, and professional crew for learning and development with the Meta production team
- Metaverse experience at Meta's Experience Centre

Additional support:

- For Content Production; $2,000 per person following successful completion of program, and an additional $2,000 contribution in kind, e.g. equipment by partner.
- Introductions to industry contacts including creators, agents/management teams and brands.
- Travel to Sydney and return (if you live in another town or state) and accommodation for the Program (plus per diems depending on whether we cater or not)
- Upon completion of the program, creators will be assigned an Instagram Partner Manager for at least 6 months following the program to assist with their account needs, provide ongoing support and platform opportunities.
