For each confirmed Key Creative you must indicate their Career Stage. This refers to what stage of their career the Key Creative has reached to this point:

- Grassroots: The Key Creative has no practical industry experience. They may have worked on some small, short-form content projects.
- Emerging: The Key creative has some experience in above the line roles on commissioned or critically recognised short-form productions. They may have a credit on a lower-budget long-form production.
- Mid-Career: The Key Creative has a strong track record across multiple longer form productions, which have achieved critical success and significant audience reach.
- Established: The Key Creative is highly accomplished, with significant experience on numerous higher-budget productions, which have achieved commercial and critical success.

First Nations Content or Participation

* indicates a required field

Screen Australia supports the telling of First Nations stories by First Nations creatives and storytellers.

Where this is not the case we expect meaningful collaboration and consultation with the First Nations communities whose stories they are.

Whenever there is First Nations content and/or First Nations community participation in the project or when there are First Nations members of the team who do not have the authority to speak for the people or place being represented in the story you will need to follow the checklists from Pathways & Protocols: a film maker's guide to working with Indigenous people, culture and concepts which includes:

- a statement on how you are approaching the First Nations content or participation with regard to appropriate protocols
- Applicants must demonstrate that they have a consultation plan covering the full production process and are following it
- evidence of consultation to date
- if the project will involve particular First Nations individuals or communities, please include signed letters of consent confirming their willingness to participate

All projects involving First Nations content or participation will be assessed by First Nations Assessors.

Is there First Nations content, and/or participation of or collaboration with First Nations people in your project?

Yes No

For example: Does the project involve a First Nations story or a First Nations character? Or focus on a First Nations person or community? Or use First Nations communities or land as locations? Or draw on or refer to First Nations culture and heritage in any form? Even if you think the First Nations elements are incidental they should be outlined here.

Please select the Indigenous languages or language groups that your story content relates to:

If relevant select more than one. The above provides a list of language names and the AIATSIS code from the Austlang Database. You can visit the Austlang Database to see more information about the languages you are selecting Screen Australia is collecting data on the use of artificial intelligence (AI) use in funding applications and projects. This will enable us to better understand where and how it is being used.

Applicants utilising AI should ensure such use aligns with Screen Australia's AI Guiding Principles.

The following responses are collected for Screen Australia's research and reporting activities and will not be used to assess applications or their eligibility. However, applicants are required to declare the accuracy and compliance of their application prior to submitting and if successful, will be required to meet Screen Australia's standard contractual requirements and comply with all applicable laws.

Please select the Key Creative's role *

Does the Key Creative have a disability? *

Is the Key Creative from a culturally or linguistically diverse background? *

Does the Key Creative identify as LGBTQIA+? *

'LGBTQIA+' refers to lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender/gender diverse, queer, intersex and asexual - the '+' recognises that LGBTQIA doesn't include a range of other terms that people identify with, or use to describe themselves. We acknowledge that one acronym or description may be not able to fully capture the diversity of gender identities, sexual orientations and bodily diversity in our community, and that language is constantly evolving. Our intention is to be as succinct as we can, but inclusive of all.
